

Sylvia Perry Memorial Scholarship for Music Education

2022

Sponsored by OMEA District 4 and Peripole, Inc.

Sylvia Perry was an outstanding pioneer of music education. In 1945, she co-founded Peripole Inc., a fledgling music company which has since grown to provide musical instruments for classrooms and homes across the US. Mrs. Perry held two master's degrees from Columbia University Teachers College in Music Education and Special Education. A prodigy on the piano, she also studied at Julliard School of Music. Sylvia Perry's dedication to music education in the Willamette Valley was of the highest degree.

OMEA District 4 is proud to honor her legacy through this scholarship. This $1000 scholarship will be awarded to a graduating high school senior who plans to study Music Education in college. Applications will be accepted from students in OMEA District 4. The winner will be selected by the current OMEA District 4 board at their April 2022 meeting.

2021's winner was Miguel Sanchez from Silverton High School.
